WHO ARE WE?

Ratics Jewelry

Ratics Jewelry is a handcrafted jewelry brand inspired by the concept of redefining elegance. We believe that our jewelry can be an extension of an individual's essence. Jewelry is an art form on its own that compliments the detailed life story each person expresses through their style. We pride ourselves in our craftsmanship and knowledge, the result of 30 years of experience in this industry.

We comprehend how humanity shifts. A constant product of time. We understand the diversity of nature and like a force of nature itself, we adapt to its ever-changing states. Just like how we know when to build our own paths or how to better shift the odds our way, each of our pieces carries a reflection of this constant evolution. It's our very nature and identity.

Bronze and rhodium each serve a different style purpose. Contrary to popular belief, they do not clash; they respond to different environments and expressions. We map the evolution of trends and styles, and understand that no two areas of fashion evolve and act the same way. This is why diversity in our materials is important, but also is honoring and studying each of our products with great care for each of our clients.

Gold plated bronze is our mastered art. Each of our pieces is the result of a perfect balance between elegance and character, without sacrificing comfort and precise detail. The creation of our collections is an exploration on various expressions of identity; a way of praising individuality, intention and authentic sense of self.

Rhodium represents our fluid curiosity. Our gold-plated rhodium pieces are intersections of modern trends, they are the playfulness of experimenting with fashion, but also the simplicity of the familiar.

It's our mission to find a perfect match to our client's style, a piece that compliments their life and enhances their natural shine. We believe our jewelry is as unique as the people who wear it, meant to be celebrated and solidified into a product that will forever be glowing with our clients.

February Edit — One of the biggest driving forces in life is love. We celebrate this complex yet beautiful feeling that keeps us human. The connections we make when caring for oneself and others. We want to reward the lovers and give them a means to an end: express a meaningful message not only in the form of a physical product, but a sentiment that shouts "I see you, and I want you to glow in your own style".

Heart of Gold

Solid. Pure. Undeniable.

This month, where love is the highlight of our lives, we are reminded how this complex feeling seeps through every crevice of our souls. Whether it is an affectionate love, or a passion we materialize in the efforts of our hard work, our collections want to speak directly to every type of lover, to every intention of love we put out in the world daily.

“It's that heart of gold, and stardust shine that makes you beautiful.”
— R.M. Broderick

Garden Collection

Garden Collection

Whimsical, Romantic, Gentle, Soft

This is a collection that resembles a soft romantic love, with a little touch of whimsical garden vibes.

Just like a flower that is silently beautiful and unapologetic, these pieces pair with the kind of soul that stays gentle for life but is there to live it with their whole heart.

Mastery Collection

Mastery Collection

Refined, Thoughtful, Complex, Detailed

This collection is for the souls that measure each of their steps. Not out of fear, but out of experience: a force of habit.

These are thoughtful lovers, driven by the details, but also knowing how to spice things up with a touch of new. This collection is intended to feel like a controlled force, like a silent passion that simmers under the skin.
